

Attached is a decision of the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission (Commission). This decision WILL BECOME FINAL unless further action is taken by you. It is important that you pay attention to all filing deadlines. The mailed date and the filing deadline can be found at the bottom of the last page of the Commission decision.

The Michigan Employment Security Act (The Act) provides three separate options for seeking relief from decisions or final orders of the Commission.

1. APPEALS TO CIRCUIT COURT

You may appeal a final order or decision of the Commission to Circuit Court within 30 days after the mailed date of the decision.

An appeal of a final decision to Circuit Court can be filed in the county in which the claimant resides or the circuit court of the county in which the claimant's place of employment is or was located, or, if a claimant is not a party to the case, the circuit court of the county in which the employer's principal place of business in this state is located. Application for review shall be made within 30 days after mailing a copy of the order or decision by any method permissible under the rules and practices of the circuit courts of this state. Circuit court claims of appeal are to be filed with the clerk of the appropriate circuit court.

2. REHEARING

You may file for rehearing with the Commission within 30 days after the mailed date of the decision. A party requesting a rehearing shall serve the request on all other parties at the time of filing with the Commission.

The Act provides that the Commission may, either upon application by an interested party for rehearing or on its own motion, proceed to rehear, affirm, modify, set aside, or reverse a prior decision on the basis of the evidence previously submitted or on the basis of additional evidence. An application for rehearing must be submitted within 30 days of the mailed date by personal service, postal delivery, electronic delivery, or facsimile transmission to the contact information shown at the bottom of the page.

3. REOPENING

You may file for reopening with the Commission after the 30-day appeal period expires but within 1 year after the date of mailing.

The Act provides that the Commission may, for good cause, reopen and review a prior decision and issue a new decision after the 30-day appeal period has expired, but a review shall not be made unless the request is filed with the Commission, or review is initiated by the Commission with notice to the interested parties, within 1 year after the date of mailing of the prior decision. A request for reopening must be submitted by personal service, postal delivery, electronic delivery, or facsimile transmission to the contact information shown at the bottom of this page.

Claimant,

UIA Case No.: ██████████

Employer.

DECISION OF THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS COMMISSION

This case is before the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission (Commission) on the claimant's timely appeal of a September 25, 2025 Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) decision. The decision modified a March 26, 2025 Unemployment Insurance Agency (Agency) reconsideration and found that the claimant is liable for restitution under Section 62(a) of the Act and subject to penalty under Section 62(b) of the Act. After reviewing the record, the Commission finds that the ALJ's decision should be affirmed.

The evidence in the record indicates that prior to filing her claim in this matter, that the claimant had filed numerous earlier claims for which she properly certified. The fact that she had properly certified in the past undermines the credibility of her explanation regarding why she this time failed to report earnings. Consequently, the Commission finds that the claimant intentionally misled the Agency by failing to report her earnings during the weeks at issue. As a result, she is subject to fraud penalties for the ten weeks in question.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the ALJ's September 25, 2025 decision is affirmed and that the claimant is liable for restitution of the $3,260 in benefits she improperly received under Section 62(a) of the Act and is subject to penalty under Section 62(b) of the Act as she intentionally misled the Agency to secure benefits for the weeks at issue.

Mikhail Albuseiri, Commissioner

William J. Runco, Commissioner
