

STATE OF MICHIGAN
UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS COMMISSION

In the Matter of

[REDACTED]

Appeal Docket No.: [REDACTED] 25-002782

Claimant,

UIA Case No.: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Employer.

REMAND ORDER

On August 25, 2025, the Unemployment Insurance Agency (Agency) issued a redetermination that found the claimant disqualified for benefits under Section 29(1)(a) of the Michigan Employment Security Act. The claimant timely appealed the redetermination and a hearing was scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) for September 25, 2025. On September 26, 2025, the ALJ issued an order dismissing the claimant's appeal for lack of prosecution because the claimant did not appear for the hearing.

This case is now before the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission (Commission) on the claimant's timely appeal from the ALJ's order. In his appeal to the Commission, the claimant indicated that he did not appear for the hearing because he did not receive the hearing notice.

The standard for rehearing of an ALJ's order or decision is as follows:

Reasons for requesting a rehearing include, but are not limited to, good cause for not appearing at a hearing or the discovery of material evidence after the date of the hearing.

Mich Admin Code, R 792.11414(2).

The claimant may have good cause for his absence from the hearing. Accordingly, the ALJ's order must be set aside, and this matter remanded to the ALJ for a hearing, as set forth below.

The claimant indicated that he updated his address with the Agency. We strongly encourage the claimant to contact the Michigan Office of Administrative Hearings and Rules (MOAHR), which manages the administrative hearings, to ensure that the claimant's telephone number and address of record are current, and if necessary, to update the telephone number and address with the MOAHR. Failure to do so may result in the claimant not receiving notice of the hearing or other important documents. The claimant may contact the MOAHR at MOAHRUA@michigan.gov or by phone at (313) 456-2700.

THEREFORE, for the reasons stated above, the ALJ's order is set aside.

FURTHERMORE, this matter is remanded to the ALJ to take evidence on:

- (1) the reasons the claimant failed to appear at the prior hearing and/or any other reason to grant rehearing under Rule 792.11414(2); and
- (2) the merits of the claimant's appeal of the underlying Agency redetermination.

If the ALJ grants rehearing, the ALJ shall state the reasons therefor in the decision and proceed to adjudicate the appeal on the underlying redetermination.

If after receiving evidence, the ALJ decides to deny rehearing, the ALJ shall issue a decision or order accordingly, which should also include reissuing the original lack of prosecution order.

The Commission retains no jurisdiction in this matter.
