

Attached is a decision of the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission (Commission). This decision WILL BECOME FINAL unless further action is taken by you. It is important that you pay attention to all filing deadlines. The mailed date and the filing deadline can be found at the bottom of the last page of the Commission decision.

The Michigan Employment Security Act (The Act) provides three separate options for seeking relief from decisions or final orders of the Commission.

1. APPEALS TO CIRCUIT COURT

You may appeal a final order or decision of the Commission to Circuit Court within 30 days after the mailed date of the decision.

An appeal of a final decision to Circuit Court can be filed in the county in which the claimant resides or the circuit court of the county in which the claimant's place of employment is or was located, or, if a claimant is not a party to the case, the circuit court of the county in which the employer's principal place of business in this state is located. Application for review shall be made within 30 days after mailing a copy of the order or decision by any method permissible under the rules and practices of the circuit courts of this state. Circuit court claims of appeal are to be filed with the clerk of the appropriate circuit court.

2. REHEARING

You may file for rehearing with the Commission within 30 days after the mailed date of the decision. A party requesting a rehearing shall serve the request on all other parties at the time of filing with the Commission.

The Act provides that the Commission may, either upon application by an interested party for rehearing or on its own motion, proceed to rehear, affirm, modify, set aside, or reverse a prior decision on the basis of the evidence previously submitted or on the basis of additional evidence. An application for rehearing must be submitted within 30 days of the mailed date by personal service, postal delivery, electronic delivery, or facsimile transmission to the contact information shown at the bottom of the page.

3. REOPENING

You may file for reopening with the Commission after the 30-day appeal period expires but within 1 year after the date of mailing.

The Act provides that the Commission may, for good cause, reopen and review a prior decision and issue a new decision after the 30-day appeal period has expired, but a review shall not be made unless the request is filed with the Commission, or review is initiated by the Commission with notice to the interested parties, within 1 year after the date of mailing of the prior decision. A request for reopening must be submitted by personal service, postal delivery, electronic delivery, or facsimile transmission to the contact information shown at the bottom of this page.

Claimant.

UIA Case No.: ██████████

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL FOR LACK OF JURISDICTION FROM ALJ ORDER

This case is before the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission (Commission) on the claimant's late appeal from an Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) order mailed June 13, 2024. Under Section 33(2) of the Michigan Employment Security Act, MCL 421.33(2), the Commission has jurisdiction to consider only timely appeals. A timely appeal is one filed with the Commission within 30 days of the date the ALJ's decision was mailed. Section 33(2). In this case the appeal was due on July 15, 2024, and was deemed filed upon receipt with the Commission on November 3, 2025. Mich Admin Code, R (Rule) 792.10104(2) and Rule 792.11418(2). Because the appeal was received after the 30-day period, the Commission has no jurisdiction to consider the merits of the claimant's appeal.

If the claimant has reason to believe this appeal was not late, the claimant should submit a written APPLICATION FOR REHEARING ADDRESSED TO THE COMMISSION explaining why the claimant believes the appeal was timely. The claimant should attach any supporting documentation. For example, the claimant may have a certified mail receipt that shows an appeal was delivered to the Commission by the 30-day deadline. An application for rehearing must be RECEIVED by the deadline indicated at the end of this Order.

We note that in the claimant's appeal, she indicates she has questions about possible fraud. The claimant may wish to contact the Unemployment Insurance Agency directly regarding those questions.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the claimant's late appeal to the Commission is DISMISSED.

George Wyatt III, Commissioner

Mikhail Albuseiri, Commissioner

William J. Runco, Commissioner

MAILED AT LANSING, MICHIGAN January 23, 2026

This decision shall be final unless EITHER (1) the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission RECEIVES a written request for rehearing on or before the deadline, OR (2) the appropriate circuit court RECEIVES an appeal on or before the deadline. The deadline is:
