

STATE OF MICHIGAN
UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS COMMISSION

In the Matter of

[REDACTED]

Appeal Docket No.: [REDACTED] 25-002339

Claimant,

UIA Case No.: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Employer.

ORDER GRANTING REHEARING AND REMAND ORDER

On June 6, 2025, the Unemployment Insurance Agency (Agency) issued a monetary redetermination that held the claimant was not able to establish a claim for benefits under Sections 32, 46, and 27 of the Michigan Employment Security Act (Act). The claimant timely appealed the Agency's redetermination, and a hearing was scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) on July 17, 2025. On July 18, 2025, the ALJ issued an order dismissing the claimant's appeal for lack of prosecution because the claimant had not appeared for the July 17, 2025 hearing.

The claimant timely appealed the July 18, 2025 ALJ's order to the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission (Commission). On October 24, 2025, the Commission issued a decision affirming the ALJ's July 18, 2025 order because the claimant did not explain the reasons she had failed to appear at the scheduled July 17, 2025 ALJ hearing.

This case is again before the Commission on the claimant's timely November 10, 2025 request for rehearing of the Commission's October 24, 2025 decision. In her request for rehearing to the Commission, the claimant indicates that she did not appear for the hearing because she had been in the hospital and had been unable to call out.

Under Mich Admin Code, R 792.11414(2), a party must establish good cause for not appearing at a scheduled ALJ hearing.

The claimant may have good cause for her absence from the ALJ's scheduled July 17, 2025 hearing. Accordingly, we grant the claimant's November 10, 2025 request for rehearing, set aside the Commission's October 24, 2025 decision and the ALJ's July 18, 2025 order, and remand this matter to the ALJ for a hearing, as set forth below.

The claimant may obtain representation at no charge under the ADVOCACY PROGRAM. The claimant may consider seeking such assistance for the ALJ hearing on remand. More information is available by calling 1-800-638-3994.

At the hearing on remand, the parties may submit any documents they wish considered by the ALJ. This includes any documents the parties previously submitted to the Agency, the ALJ, and this Commission, and any other documents they wish considered as evidence. The parties must submit proposed exhibits to both the ALJ and the other party prior to the remand hearing consistent with instructions on the Notice of Telephone Hearing.

THEREFORE, for the reasons stated above, the claimant's November 10, 2025 request for rehearing is GRANTED.

Furthermore, the Commission's above prior decision and the ALJ's above order are set aside.

FURTHERMORE, this matter is remanded to the ALJ to take evidence on:

- (1) the reasons the claimant failed to appear at the July 17, 2025 scheduled hearing, and/or any other reason to grant rehearing under Rule 792.11414(2); and
- (2) the merits of the claimant's appeal of the underlying Agency monetary redetermination.

If the ALJ grants rehearing, the ALJ shall state the reasons therefor in the decision and proceed to adjudicate the appeal on the underlying monetary redetermination.

If after receiving evidence, the ALJ decides to deny rehearing, the ALJ shall issue a decision or order accordingly, which should also include reissuing the original lack of prosecution order.

The Commission retains no jurisdiction in this matter.
